

Seminar on

“Parliamentary sovereignty and accountability after the post-Brexit referendum’s case law”

Co-organised by LUISS Department of Political Science, LUISS Centre for Parliamentary Study and in the framework of the National Project of National relevance (PRIN) on “The Constitutional Implications of European Separatist Claims”

Thursday 13th February 202

h. 11.30-18.30

LUISS Guido Carli

Viale Romania 32

Room 202

h. 11.30 Greetings and Introductory remarks

Nicola Lupo (LUISS Guido Carli)

11.45 – 14.00 First session - “The meaning of parliamentary sovereignty today”

11.45 –12.15 Keynote speech

Pavlos Eleftheriadis (University of Oxford)

Roundtable: Thomas Christiansen (LUISS Guido Carli), Claudio Martinelli (University of Milano Bicocca), Mark Thatcher (LUISS Guido Carli), Alessandro Torre (University of Bari)

13.15 –14.00 Q&A

Chair: Marta Simoncini (LUISS Guido Carli)

14.00-16.00 Lunch break

16.00-18.30 Second session - “Parliamentary accountability: trumped or revamped?”

16.00-16.30 Keynote speech

Peter Leyland (SOAS, London, and LUISS Guido Carli)

Roundtable: Giulia Aravantinou Leonidi (University of Rome “La Sapienza”), Cristina Fasone (LUISS Guido Carli), Elena Griglio (Senate of the Italian Republic), Francesca Rosa (University of Foggia)

17.30 – 18.15 Q&A

Chair: Daniele Gallo (LUISS Guido Carli)