

Italian Studies in Law

Volume 1

Edited by

Alessandro Pizzorusso

ITALIAN STUDIES IN LAW

A Review of Legal Problems

edited by the Italian Association of Comparative Law

GENERAL EDITOR: ALESSANDRO PIZZORUSSO

VOLUME I

MARTINUS NIJHOFF PUBLISHERS

DORDRECHT / BOSTON / LONDON

Contents

Articles

Why the Yearbook Italian Studies in Law ? Mauro Cappelletti	3
Rules, Validity and Statutory Construction Riccardo Guastini	11
1. Weak and Strong Sense of "Validity"	11
2. Validity Statements and their Subject-Matters	13
3. Statutory Construction	15
4. Statutory Sentences and Rules	17
5. Validity of Normative Acts	21
6. Validity of Rules, Expressed and Unexpressed	21
7. Formal and Material Validity	22
8. Validity of Statutory Provisions	23
9. Relationship between Formal and Material Validity	24
10. Law-givers' Language Transformed by Lawyers	25
Vittorio Emanuele Orlando: Scholar and Statesman Maurizio Fioravanti	29
1. A Brief Introduction	29
2. Orlando and the Study of Public Law in Liberal Italy	30
3. Orlando's Political Engagement for the Reform of the Liberal State. The "Social Question". Orlando and Fascism	39
4. Orlando and the New Democratic Constitution	49

vi Contents

“Iura Naturalia Sunt Immutabilia.” Limits to the Powers of the “ Princeps ” (as Sovereign) in Legal Literature and Case Law between XVI and XVIII Centuries	55
Gino Gorla
1. Foreword	55
2. The “ Princeps ” and His “ Potestates ” Limited by the “ Iura Naturalia ”	57
3. The “ Iura Naturalia ” and the Means (“ Iustae Causae ”) Used to Repeal Them	58
4. The Means to Make Effective the Limits to the Princeps ’ Powers, According to the “ Iura Naturalia ”: the “ Quaestio Potestatis ” per se , and How It Is Preliminary to the “ Quaestio Voluntatis ”; the “ Supersessiones ” and the “ Interinatio ”	60
5. The “ Quaestio Voluntatis ” (With the “ Quaestio Potestatis ” as Preliminary Issue)	62
6. The “ Quaestio Potestatis ” per se : If, Where, How and with What Effects It Can Be Raised	64
7 and 8. [Omissis]	65
9. Sources	65
10. Some Final Considerations	66
The System of European Private Law. Premises for a European Code	71
Rodolfo Sacco
1. Ideology for Uniformity and for Plurality of Solutions	71
2. Uniforming and Political Choices	72
3. Indivisible Ownership	73
4. The Transfer of Ownership	75
5. Absolute Ownership	77
6. Pacta Sunt Servanda	78
7. Neminem Laedere	79
8. The Task of Scholarship	80
Compensation for Expropriation	83
Domenico Sorace
1. The Two Extreme Doctrines	83
2. The Main Problems	85
3. The Constitutional Court’s Approach	88

4. An Alternative Approach: a) Absolute Limits on the Public Power to Shape the Content of Private Property	90
5. Follows: b) Constitutional Principles Related to Administrative Activity	92
6. Follows: c) "Restraints Preliminary to Expropriation" (Vincoli Preordinati all'Espropriazione)	95
7. Follows: d) Reliance of the Individual on the Fair Exercise of Public Power (Affidamento)	97
8. The Constitutional Court and the Amount of Compensation for Expropriation	99
9. The Hypothesis of Full Compensation for Economic Damages Deriving from Expropriation	101
10. Follows: Prejudices to Constitutionally Protected Interests	104
11. The Problem of Ground Rent (Rendita Fondiaria Urbana)	107
12. Compensation for the Expropriation of Areas Suitable for Building	112

Reviews

The Law of Property in Italy	119
Albina Candian, Antonio Gambaro and Ugo Mattei
1. The Terminology of the Italian Law of Property (U. Mattei)	119
2. Constitutional Protection of Private Property (A. Gambaro)	123
3. Transfer of Ownership (U. Mattei)	136
4. Remedies to Protect Property (U. Mattei)	144
5. Land Law (A. Candian)	151
6. Landlord and Tenant (A. Candian)	157
7. Ownership and Ownerships (A. Candian)	159

Abstracts	165
-----------	-----