

Workshop

“Artificial Intelligence Governance and Civil Liability Dialogues”

29-30 October 2026
Scuola Superiore Sant'Anna

Sala Conferenze Palazzo Pilo Boyl
Via Santa Cecilia, 24
56127 Pisa PI

29 Oct 3 to 7 pm

SESSION I

AI governance and regulatory landscape: comparative perspectives between innovation and security

Chair: Giovanni Comandé

Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies

Xiao Baiyang

School of Law, Chongqing University)

"Rethinking Copyright Liability of AI Platforms: A Comparative Perspective"

Denise Amram

Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies

"EU and Chinese approaches to protect vulnerable groups"

Yang Qifan

Zhongnan University of Economics and Law

"Bigger Fines, Better Competition? GDPR Enforcement Strategies and Social Media Market Concentration"

Feng Zixuan

Southwest University of Political Science and Law

"China's Practice of Rights Protection and Government Responsibility in AI Governance"

Irina Carnat

Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies

"Devising the Accountability Frameworks for Responsible AI: the EU approach to AI Governance"

30 Oct 9 am to 1 pm

SESSION II

Duty of care and liability for AI generated content or services: from liability to accountability

Chair: Giovanni Comandé

Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies

Prof. Jun Li

Zhongnan University of Economics and Law

"Generative AI Hallucinations and the Duty of Care of AI Service Providers"

Prof. Jean-Sébastien Borghetti

Université Paris-Panthéon-Assas

"Do We Need a Specific Liability Regime for AI?"

Prof. Bernhard Alexander Koch

University of Innsbruck

"AI Under the New Product Liability Directive –EU Locuta, Causa Finita?"

Gerhard Wagner

Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin

"Liability for AI Output"

1:00 PM Lunch

Contact: Segreteria Lider-lab

segrliderlab@santannapisa.it

ph. +39 050 883529

